Dear Parents and Students,

Welcome to the Little Cypress Junior High Band Program. We are excited to have you as part of our program this year. Parents, I formally invite you to all of our performances this school year. Students, I hope you are ready for a great year!

We have recently moved into the new band hall, and it is incredible! We are looking forward to a GREAT year with performances at pep rallies, football games, our Veteran's Day Program, UIL Contest, concerts, and other venues. We are excited and looking forward to working with you!

The purpose of this handbook is to clarify the expectations that go with being in band. Please read the entire handbook, sign the form on the last page, and return it to the band directors by Wednesday, August 21st, 2019.

We can't wait to work and grow with you. Let's have a fantastic year!

Sincerely,

Dan Wilhelm

Dan Wilhelm

Rules/Expectations

Conduct:

The various bands within our program are ambassadors of the school, the district, and the community. We expect band members to be aware of the need to conduct themselves properly. Bands from LCM have always received the highest praise for their excellent manners and conduct. We expect this tradition to continue!

1. Be in your seat ready for class when the tardy bell rings.
2. Bring ALL materials to class every day.
3. Be polite to other students and especially the band staff.

Grading Policy

Grading in band will depend on two categories, daily and major grades. Daily grades will consist of your weekly participation, as well as any worksheets you are assigned. Your major grades will be your playing tests and attendance at performances. An unexcused absence from a concert may result in removal from the program.

Academic Ineligibility

As mandated by the Texas University Interscholastic League (UIL) any grade below 70 on a six-week report card will deny you competitive performance privileges for a three or six week period. Because of the adverse effect this problem can have on an individual and the group as a whole, we will always monitor this situation closely, especially around All-Region, Solo and Ensemble, and UIL Concert and Sight-reading Contest. We ask that you continue to supervise your child and communicate with his/her teachers if any grade questions should arise. Students should understand that their grades have a direct influence on other students as well as themselves. Every individual in the band plays a vital role as a link in our chain. Consequently, when a link is missing, the chain breaks. Any one individual has the ability to prevent an entire band from performing to its full potential.

UIL Academic Requirements (No Pass, No Play)

1. If a student receives a grade below a 70 in any subject, that student will become ineligible for extra-curricular activities, as defined by the UIL, starting on the Friday following the end of the six week grading period in which the failing grade was received.
2. A student can regain eligibility on the Friday following the three-week grading period if the student is passing EVERY class and receives no remark of "currently failing" on his/her 3-week progress report.

*The directors can answer specific situational questions as they may arise.

Classroom Behavior

To redirect student behavior, the following consequences will be issued:

1. Verbal Warning (4 Questions)
2. Written Warning/Refocus Questions/Sign Book
3. Contact Parent
4. Detention (Refocus Questionnaire) or Appropriate Consequence
5. Office Referral

Band Uniforms

The dress for all concerts and contests will be "Sunday Best". No jeans, t-shirts, tennis shoes, etc. Boys should wear a collared shirt tucked in, with slacks (no jeans) and dress shoes. Girls may wear a dress (within the confines of the school dress code) slacks or skirt with an appropriate top, and dress shoes.

7th and 8th grade band students are required to purchase a band T-shirt. Symphonic band students will also need to purchase a band polo for more formal performances.

These guidelines are not meant to infringe on a students' right to self-expression. They are designed to maintain uniformity among the band members. Failure to comply with these guidelines can result in a student being removed from the performance in question resulting in a lower grade. All dress should comply with the student dress code, found in the LCJH Student Handbook.

Concert Etiquette

Audience manners are based on a respect for performers and for other members in the audience. They are expressions of courtesy. Unfortunately, young people in today's society are seldom exposed to formal concert situations and are often unaware of the standards of appropriate behavior. When attending concerts throughout the year, LCJH band members will be expected to display appropriate behavior while in the audience listening to their peers perform.

By following these guidelines you can help us set the proper example for our students and will make the concert more enjoyable for all.

1. Avoid entering or leaving the auditorium while a group is performing. If necessary, move only between pieces while there is no groups performing.
2. Applause is welcomed, but whistling or cheering is inappropriate for a formal concert.
3. Talking is inappropriate during a performance. Young children who are talking or crying should be escorted out of the performance area.
4. Attention should be directed to the performing group at all times.
5. Cell phones, texting devices and other electronics should be turned off. This can be very distracting to the audience, and can ruin a band's performance.

Please remember that you lead the entire audience by your example.

At-Home Practice

Consistent at-home practice is essential for a student to progress at an acceptable rate on his or her instrument. Parents, encourage your child to adopt a routine to practice every day. Past experience has shown us that students who are practicing and making noticeable progress on their instrument are more likely to enjoy band than those who do not practice. Just as with anything else that is worth learning, there are parts of learning an instrument that are not as fun as others. Often, as the newness wears off, practicing becomes more "work". When this happens, please encourage your child to push through the difficult parts, and they will become easier in time.

Instrument Policy/Supplies

All students, with the exception of those who play oboe, French horn, baritone, or tuba, will be required to purchase their own instrument. Students with school issued instruments will be required to purchase a mouthpiece. Since we do not charge students to use school issued instruments, the student will be required to pay for any repairs above normal wear and tear. Swicegood Music in Beaumont offers rental plans if you prefer not to buy an instrument. The band will furnish music and folders for the students. Students must have their instrument in working condition and they will be responsible for reeds, reed case, oil, sticks, or any other supplies that pertain to their instrument. Supplies can be purchased from the band at a discounted rate. There is a price list in the band hall for all supplies.

All percussionists will need to purchase sticks, mallets and a stick bag and have those at class every day.

Band Travel

The Little Cypress Jr. High Band represents the entire school, as well as the LCM CISD. Students must be in good standing with the school in order to travel with the band. All school rules still apply on field trips. When traveling with the band, students are expected to follow all directions as set forth by the directors and chaperones. All adults are to be treated with the utmost respect. Band members will always make every effort to be courteous and respectful.

Private Lessons

We are very fortunate at LCM to have a private lesson program. We offer teachers for every band instrument and have some scholarships available. As a classroom teacher, it is impossible to consistently instruct every student on a one-on-one basis. Private lessons, however, provide your child with a weekly 30-minute instructional period with a professional teacher/performer on their specialized instrument. This allows students to progress at their own pace with supervised quality instruction. They are held on either Monday or Tuesday after school and will begin on Monday September 9th. If you have a specific time you need for your child's lesson, please turn in the enrollment paperwork soon.

Instrument Cabinets

Students using an instrument cabinet are not to use personal key or combination locks.

Interpretation of Policies and Regulations

This handbook has been prepared as a general guide to the operation of the Band Department in the Little Cypress Mauriceville Schools. It must be understood that the students with whom this department deals are all individuals. Therefore, it is necessary to understand that every infraction is unique, and the Director of Bands has the authority to render all judgments concerning any matter pertaining to the overall band program and its operation.
